

THE KIPLINGER WASHINGTON LETTER
20 February 1981

The CIA is going to be revitalized under Reagan. The new team he has chosen to run it is top-notch and can get funds to do the job. Reagan wants it rebuilt and strengthened...its low morale rejuvenated. He believes good intelligence is fundamental to a sound foreign policy, so after years of denigration, the CIA is coming out of the doghouse.